Section C: Specific Tariff Heading Level

Part a. Comments on Tariff Headings Currently Covered by the Actions

18. You must first select (Yes/No) if you have views on a specific tariff heading subject to the tariffs. If you select No, you move on to Part b.

a. Comments on Tariff Headings Currently Covered by the Actions (List 1, 2, 3, and 4A)

Do you have views on a tariff heading currently covered by the actions (List 1, 2, 3, and 4A)? (Public)

After selecting Yes, you are asked to provide the tariff code (HTS) covering the goods you wish to comment on; either the 8-digit or 10-digit code, for plastic injection molds, enter: 8480.71.80

Please provide the current tariff code covering goods that you wish to comment on. You must enter the relevant tariff code (8-digit or 10-digit) that is subject to the action. For most goods, additional duties have been applied at the 8-digit level. Additional tariff codes can be entered after completing the questions for each tariff code. * (Public)

[Enter any relevant HTS from the attached list used by your company] then comments on the following questions are asked:

19. Is your comment that the specific tariff line should be removed or that it should remain covered by the actions? [Select Remain]

Is your comment that the specific tariff line should be removed or that it should remain covered by the actions? * (Public)

20. For the tariff code provided, please explain why maintaining the current additional duties, including the current rate of duties, would or would not be effective in obtaining the elimination of or in counteracting China's acts, policies, and practices related to technology transfer, intellectual property and innovation.
21. Have additional duties on goods covered by this tariff code impacted the U.S. economy, including consumers?
- (a). Have additional duties on products covered by this tariff code led to changes in domestic manufacturing of the products or downstream products, including in terms of 9 capital investments, capacity and production levels, industry concentration, and profits? To the extent possible, please quantify any changes.
  - (b). Have additional duties on goods covered by this tariff code impacted U.S. workers, including with respect to the level of employment and wages?
  - (c). Have additional duties on goods covered by this tariff code impacted U.S. small businesses?
  - (d). Have additional duties on goods covered by this tariff code impacted lead times or changed inventory practices for the products or downstream products?
  - (e). Have additional duties on goods covered by this tariff code resulted in shifts in U.S. supply chains away from China and to the United States or third countries?

1. If yes, would removing the tariff code impact shifts in U.S. supply chains away from China and to the United States or third countries?
- (f). Have additional duties on the goods covered by this tariff code helped achieve goals pertaining to U.S. critical supply chains outlined in Executive Order 14017?
- (g). Are the goods covered by this tariff code inputs used for additional manufacturing in the U.S.?
  1. If yes, are additional duties on the inputs higher than additional duties on the downstream product(s) or finished good(s) incorporating those inputs (“tariff inversion”)?
  2. If yes, please identify the tariff code the downstream product(s) or finished good(s) are imported under. If unknown, enter “unknown”.
  3. Please provide a description of the downstream product or finished good.
- (h). Have additional duties on goods covered by this tariff code impacted U.S. consumers, including with respect to prices and product availability?

You are allowed the ability to provide the submission of Business Confidential Information (BCI) on questions (a). – (h). above. For questions you are requesting confidential treatment, you must also provide a nonconfidential (Public) version in the box provided. Confidential responses should have BCI clearly marked with double brackets [[ BCI ]]. Nonconfidential (Public) versions should have BCI removed from the double brackets [[ ]].

22. If you do provide BCI you must also certify the information is business confidential, disclosure of the information would endanger trade secrets or profitability, and such information is not generally available.
23. If you have additional tariff codes that you wish to comment on you can add those tariff codes and answer all the questions separately for all.
